

Corresponding Member 2026 of the DGOU Prof. Dr. hab. Artur Gądek, Krakow, Poland

Head of the Clinic of Orthopedics and Physiotherapy at the Jagiellonian University Medical College and the Department of Orthopedics at the University Hospital, Kraków, Poland

©Gadek

Academic education and Professional careers:

1987 graduated from the Jagiellonian University Medical College in Kraków Department of Orthopaedics and Traumatology at the University Hospital in Kraków, specialising in hip and knee arthroplasty and traumatology.

1994 completing specialist training in orthopaedics and traumatology.

He subsequently obtained his doctoral degree and Habilitation

2015 Title of Professor

Specialization/focus of professional activity:

Throughout his career, Professor Gądek has developed extensive expertise in several areas of orthopaedics. His primary fields of interest are hip and knee arthroplasty, as well as foot and ankle surgery.

Membership in scientific societies

- President of the Polish Foot and Ankle Society.
- Corresponding Member of the German Association for Foot and Ankle Surgery (DAF)
- Member of the Board of the Polish Orthopaedic and Traumatological Society (PTOiTr).

For many years, Professor Gądek has served as Head of the Department of Orthopaedics and Traumatology at the Jagiellonian University Hospital in Kraków.

He is the author of more than 100 scientific publications and has participated in over 120 courses and conferences.

- Polish Society of Orthopaedics and Traumatology (PTOiTr)
- International Society of Arthroscopy, Knee Surgery and Orthopaedic Sports Medicine (ISAKOS)
- Polish Foot and Ankle Society (PFAS)
- European Foot and Ankle Society (EFAS)
- European Hip Society (EHS)

Professor Gądek has visited numerous hospitals and medical institutions throughout Europe and the United States. In Germany, he has visited hospitals and clinics in Siegen, Straubing, Münster, Villingen-Schwenningen, the ENDO Klinik in Hamburg, and Charité in Berlin. He has also visited the Aesculap Academy in Tuttlingen on numerous occasions